Metal Pages NiCoMo 2015

London, England, February 23rd – 25th 2015- The meeting is the premier event for nickel, cobalt, molybdenum, ferro-chrome and stainless steel professionals. NiCoMo 2015 not only provides an outlook for the industry and financial markets, but also focuses on specific opportunities, challenges, and risks across four key metals. This year there will be an even greater focus on the superalloys, stainless steel and battery industries, ensuring the full supply chain is covered in a packed 2-day agenda.

Climax Molybdenum representatives will be attending this conference.
